CASE NO. S-0369:2

DECISION NO. 89-34

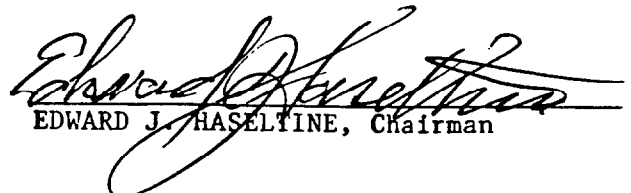

MOTION TO CONTINUE

On April 27, 1989 Robert T. Clark, Esq., Counsel for the State Employees Association of New Hampshire Local 1984, SEIU, AFL-CIO filed a Motion requesting PELRB for reconsideration of its decision 89-33, April 25, 1989, denying a Motion filed April 18, 1989 for Continuance of a hearing scheduled May 4, 1989 of unfair labor practice charge filed by State Employees Association against the State Negotiating Committee and others. Setting forth several reasons for the request, absence of key witnesses, and suggested influence the hearing might have on presently ongoing negotiations.

This request for reconsideration was joined and supported by Thomas Manning, negotiator for the State of New Hampshire and Jeffrey R. Howard, Esq., Deputy Attorney General for the State of New Hampshire.

The history of this case, its alleged urgency, original request for expedited hearing has been fully recited in PELRB Decision 89-33.

After review of the request for reconsideration, and continuance of the hearing scheduled May 4, 1989, PELRB in session at its office on April 27, 1989 voted to grant the reconsideration request and further continue the scheduled May 4, 1989 hearing to be rescheduled at a later date at the convenience of the Board
